The Narrative

Andrea Pernegr
Eduardo Vega de Seoane
Irene Wölfel

Eduardo Vega de Seoane, Paisaje rojo (Ausschnitt), 2021, Acryl auf Leinwand, 60x73 cm

When abstract paintings tell stories, they leave a lot of room for interpretation, they spur the imagination. And these pictures also tell us some things about the mood, the attitude of their creators. The exhibition "The Narrative" shows the freely formulated, highly personal worlds of thought in which Andrea Pernegr, Eduardo Vega de Seoane and Irene Wölfel lose themselves. Their works are not oriented towards reality; no preconceived plan determines the creative becoming of the pictures. The light-heartedness with which they let their intuitions flow is the foundation from which their narratives emerge.

Eduardo Vega de Seoane paints music. Fleeting jazz tones, sketchily painted from the recording medium directly onto the canvas. Depending on the individual mood, delicate, fragile or dark, mysterious but also colourful, strong. His paintings probably always have an overall structure, which, however, dissolves virtuously in the emotional highs and lows of the music. Eduardo himself says he paints air, the atmosphere, vibrations. He wants to write down something that can only be felt. That is why his paintings feel so light and, at the same time, so intimate as well as full of content.
